- Is considered to be relevant and reliable

This LIM does not include other information:

- Held by council that is not required to be included
- Relating to the land which is unknown to the council
- Held by other organisations which also hold land information

Council has not carried out an inspection of the land and/or buildings for the purpose of preparing this LIM. Council records may not show illegal or unauthorised building or works on the land.

The applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that the land or any building on the land is suitable for a particular purpose and for sourcing other information held by the council or other bodies. In addition, the applicant should check the Certificate of Title as it might also contain obligations relating to the land.

The text and attachments of this document should be considered together.

This Land Information Memorandum is valid as at the date of issue only.

s44A(2)(a) Information identifying any special feature or characteristics of the land

This information should not be regarded as a full analysis of the site features of this land, as there may be features that the Council is unaware of. The applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that the land is suitable for a particular purpose including development.

Site Contamination

No land contamination data are available in Council's regulatory records.

Wind Zones

Wind Zone(s) for this property: Low wind speed of 32 m/s

The wind zones are based on wind speed data specific to all building sites as outlined in NZS 3604:2011. Other factors such as topographic classes, site exposure and ground roughness determine the actual wind bracing demands and bracing elements required for the building.

For further information refer to NZS 3604:2011 Section 5 — Bracing Design

Soil Issues

Soil issues recorded. The land may not be suitable for particular development or land use purposes. A soil report may be required to/must be submitted with any building and/or resource consent application.

Effective Date	Description	Details
30/06/2000	Stability Sensitive	Please note this property was previously shown under the Transitional District Plan as being located in a Stability sensitive area.

If any soil information/reports have been prepared in relation to this property, they will be available for viewing at an Auckland Council Service Centre.

Flooding

This statement entitled "Flooding" appears on all LIMs.

Known flooding information is displayed on the map attached to this LIM entitled "Special Land Features – Natural Hazards - Flooding".

The information shown in the "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding" map is also shown on the Auckland Council online map viewer (Geomaps), at www.aucklandcouncil.govt.nz, which is updated from time to time.

Any proposed development may require a flooding assessment to be provided by the applicant.

The absence of flooding on the "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding" map does not exclude the possibility of the site flooding, particularly from Overland Flow Paths which may be on other properties.

Exposure Zones

New Zealand Standard 3604:2011E classifies all properties in New Zealand into zones based on environmental features including wind, earthquake, snow load and exposure. These zones are relevant to building requirements, such as strength of buildings, materials that should be used and maintenance. All building sites are classified as being in Exposure Zones Extreme Sea Spray, B, C, or D, depending on the severity of exposure to wind driven salt.

This property is classified as: Unknown or Unassessed Corrosion Zone

Unknown or unassessed - No known information is available relating to these sites. Recommended that specific sites and/or product designed and to consult suppliers information for specific durability requirements.

Coastal Erosion

This explanation appears on all LIMs, not just sites that may be susceptible to coastal erosion.

The map entitled "Natural Hazards - Coastal Erosion" shows information on potential coastal erosion and resulting land instability, if any, in relation to this site.

Coastal erosion is the wearing away of land due to coastal processes such as waves and currents. Coastal instability is the movement of land (typically as a landslide) resulting from the loss of support caused by coastal erosion.

Where applicable, the map shows lines that indicate areas susceptible to coastal instability and erosion (ASCIE) within the next 100 years. The lines do not show the future position of the coast. Rather, they show the landward edge of the area that might become unstable as a result of coastal erosion. The area between this line and the sea is considered to be potentially susceptible to erosion, or instability caused by erosion.

The lines represent three timescales, and take into account projected sea level rise based on carbon emission scenarios known as representative concentration pathways (RCP):

- 2050 (0.28 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2080 (0.55 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.18 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.52 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5+)

The RCP projections are from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change fifth assessment report (2015), and the related sea level rise values align with Ministry for the Environment Coastal Hazards and Climate Change Guidance for Local Government (2017).

The lines are based on data from a regional study ("Predicting Auckland's Exposure to Coastal Instability and Erosion", available on the Council website). The lines may not take into account local variability, and are not intended for site-specific use.

Development on sites affected by potential coastal erosion may be subject to Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls and may require a detailed coastal hazard assessment report to be completed by a qualified expert.

The information Council holds in relation to Special Land Features differs based on the area a property is located in. Those areas where information is held on a Special Land Feature is denoted in the legend above.

Legend updated: 22/07/2021

However even in its proposed position the dwelling, as proposed, will probably infringe the height in relation to boundary provision on the northern side boundary. The applicant is unable to obtain the neighbour's consent on this boundary and some modification of the dwelling will be required to ensure compliance with the height in relation to boundary requirement.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS

Better Development/Compliance Unreasonable or Impracticable

Given the very steep terrain of the majority of the site and the very limited building platform area at the top of the site near the road it is considered both unreasonable and impracticable to expect full compliance with the front yard requirement.

Amenities of the Neighbourhood

The nearest dwelling is that on the northern side boundary and is some 10.0m distant from the proposed dwelling and screened to some degree by native bush. Hence it is considered that the proposed siting provides good separation between buildings and does provide open space between neighbouring dwellings.

The screening effect of the surrounding native bush maintains privacy to adjoining sites and provided the height in relation to boundary provisions are complied with daylight and sunlight admission to neighbouring properties will not be affected by the proposed siting of the dwelling.

Given that the berm area in the location of the site is some 4-5 metres in depth and that the area in which the building is proposed has been previously cleared the siting of the dwelling up to 1.0m off the front boundary will not significantly affect the existing streetscape.

RECOMMENDATION

That pursuant to Sections 104, 105 and 108 of the Resource Management Act 1990 and being satisfied that the interests of no body or person are prejudiced, consent be granted to the application by S. Morrow to locate a dwelling within the front yard at 33 Tainui Road, Woodlands Park, being Lot 68 DP 37794 for the following reasons:

- (i) It is considered that given the generally steep topography of the site and the very limited building platform area available it is both unreasonable and impracticable to enforce the District Plan provisions in this particular instance.
- (ii) It is considered that with no effect discernible on daylight or sunlight admission to neighbouring properties and with more than adequate separation between neighbouring dwellings, there will be no detracting from the amenities of the neighbourhood.

- (iii) It is not considered that the partial infringement into the 3.0m front yard will adversely affect the streetscape in the area.

but subject to the following conditions:

- (1) That the dwelling comply with the height in relation to boundary provisions of the District Plan.
