Disclaimer

This Land Information Memorandum (LIM) has been prepared for the applicant for the purpose of section 44A of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987.

The LIM includes information which:

- Must be included pursuant to section 44A of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987
- Council at its discretion considers should be included because it relates to land
- Is considered to be relevant and reliable

This LIM does not include other information:

- Held by council that is not required to be included
- Relating to the land which is unknown to the council
- Held by other organisations which also hold land information

Council has not carried out an inspection of the land and/or buildings for the purpose of preparing this LIM. Council records may not show illegal or unauthorised building or works on the land.

The applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that the land or any building on the land is suitable for a particular purpose and for sourcing other information held by the council or other bodies. In addition, the applicant should check the Record of Title as it might also contain obligations relating to the land.

The text and attachments of this document should be considered together.

This Land Information Memorandum is valid as at the date of issue only.

s44A(2)(a) Information identifying any special feature or characteristics of the land

This information should not be regarded as a full analysis of the site features of this land, as there may be features that the Council is unaware of. The applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that the land is suitable for a particular purpose including development.

Site Contamination

No land contamination data are available in Council's regulatory records.

Wind Zones

Wind Zone(s) for this property: Unknown or unassessed wind zone

The wind zones are based on wind speed data specific to all building sites as outlined in NZS 3604:2011. Other factors such as topographic classes, site exposure and ground roughness determine the actual wind bracing demands and bracing elements required for the building.

For further information refer to NZS 3604:2011 Section 5 — Bracing Design

Soil Issues

The Auckland Council is not aware of any soil issues in relation to this land.

If any soil information/reports have been prepared in relation to this property, they will be available in the property file. Please order a property file online

Coastal Inundation

The site is potentially at risk of coastal inundation from extreme storm surge events and climate-change related sea-level rise.

Predicted coastal inundation is modelled on three scenarios:

- 1% AEP coastal-storm surge inundation (to demonstrate present day risk in alignment with the Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls)
- 1% AEP coastal-storm surge inundation plus 1m sea level rise (in alignment with Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls)
- 1% AEP coastal-storm surge inundation plus 2m sea level rise (to demonstrate longer term risk with ongoing sea-level rise).

The Coastal Inundation shown in the Auckland Unitary Plan – Operative in Part “Controls” map corresponds to the 1% AEP plus 1m sea-level rise Coastal Inundation scenario calculated at the time the Unitary Plan was established. The Coastal Inundation data shown in the “Special Land Features – Natural Hazards - Coastal Inundation” map is also shown on the Auckland Council Online map viewer (Geomaps) and is subject to updates to reflect our latest, best available understanding of coastal inundation and sea-level rise processes.

Storm surge is the rise in sea-level due to meteorological effects. The 1% AEP coastal-storm inundation is at a level that has a 1% chance of being equalled or exceeded per year.

Sea-level rise values are based on the projections by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change fifth assessment report (2015). One meter sea-level rise is representative of the upper bound scenario to 2115. Two meter sea-level rise is representative of potential, longer term sea-level rise (2120 to approximately 2200).

Any proposed development on this site may be subject to Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls or require a detailed coastal hazard assessment report to be completed by a qualified expert.

Flooding

This statement entitled "Flooding" appears on all LIMs.

Known flooding information is displayed on the map attached to this LIM entitled "Special Land Features – Natural Hazards - Flooding".

The information shown in the "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding" map is also shown on the Auckland Council online map viewer (Geomaps), at www.aucklandcouncil.govt.nz, which is updated from time to time.

Any proposed development may require a flooding assessment to be provided by the applicant.

The absence of flooding on the "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding" map does not exclude the possibility of the site flooding, particularly from Overland Flow Paths which may be on other properties.

For further details please check Flood Viewer

Flood Plain

This site (property parcel) spatially intersects with a Flood Plain, as displayed on the map attached to this LIM entitled "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding", and may flood during significant rainfall events.

Flood Plains represent the predicted area of land inundated by runoff from a 1% Annual Exceedance Probability (AEP) magnitude event, often referred to as a '1 in 100-year event'.

Flood Plains are generally determined by computer based hydrological and hydraulic modelling.

The Auckland Unitary Plan contains policies and rules relating to development and/or works within or adjacent to Flood Plains.

Note: The terms "Flood Plain" and "Floodplain" are used interchangeably.

Exposure Zones

New Zealand Standard 3604:2011E classifies all properties in New Zealand into zones based on environmental features including wind, earthquake, snow load and exposure. These zones are relevant to building requirements, such as strength of buildings, materials that should be used and maintenance. All building sites are classified as being in Exposure Zones Extreme Sea Spray, B, C, or D, depending on the severity of exposure to wind driven salt.

This property is classified as: Unknown or Unassessed Corrosion Zone

Unknown or unassessed - No known information is available relating to these sites. Recommended that specific sites and/or product designed and to consult suppliers information for specific durability requirements.

Coastal Erosion

This explanation appears on all LIMs, not just sites that may be susceptible to coastal erosion.

The map entitled “Natural Hazards - Coastal Erosion” shows information on potential coastal erosion and resulting land instability, if any, in relation to this site.

Coastal erosion is the wearing away of land due to coastal processes such as waves and currents. Coastal instability is the movement of land (typically as a landslide) resulting from the loss of support caused by coastal erosion.

Where applicable, the map shows lines that indicate areas susceptible to coastal instability and erosion (ASCIE) within the next 100 years. The lines do not show the future position of the coast. Rather, they show the landward edge of the area that might become unstable as a result of coastal erosion. The area between this line and the sea is considered to be potentially susceptible to erosion, or instability caused by erosion.

The lines represent three timescales, and take into account projected sea level rise based on carbon emission scenarios known as representative concentration pathways (RCP):

- 2050 (0.28 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2080 (0.55 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.18 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.52 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5+)

The RCP projections are from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change fifth assessment report (2015), and the related sea level rise values align with Ministry for the Environment Coastal Hazards and Climate Change Guidance for Local Government (2017).

The lines are based on data from a regional study (“Predicting Auckland’s Exposure to Coastal Instability and Erosion”, available on the Council website). The lines may not take into account local variability, and are not intended for site-specific use.

Development on sites affected by potential coastal erosion may be subject to Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls and may require a detailed coastal hazard assessment report to be completed by a qualified expert.

Note: if the land is part of a cross lease title or unit title, consents and permits for the other flats or units may be included in this LIM. If the land has been subdivided there may be consents and permits included that relate to the original property.

It is recommended that the full property file is viewed and compared with the actual building and activities on the land to identify any illegal or unauthorised building works or activities.

Financial / development contributions

Financial and development contributions are relevant for recently subdivided land, vacant lots, new residential unit(s) or where there is further development of a site. If any financial or development contribution has not been paid, Council can recover outstanding amount(s) from a subsequent owner of the land.
