Re: Unresolved Building Breach Notice Reviewed

Dear Caroline,

Thank you for your recent call regarding an Unresolved Building Breach Notice (UBB) which Council issued against the above property.

On further examination it is now clear that this has been issued in error.

As such the UBB has been removed and this letter will go on the property file in recognition of the error.

As discussed, there is an ability for "historic" building consents to still apply for a Code Compliance Certificate should you choose to pursue that option, and the Council are here to assist you in that matter.

Please accept my sincere apology for any distress caused by the UBB.

Regards
