

Direct Fix Cladding

The purchaser acknowledges that the home is constructed of a direct fixed cladding system which has been identified historically as a high-risk building practice. The vendor does not hold any information on the weather tightness or maintenance of this cladding, and we recommend a purchaser seeks their own legal and/or technical advice on this matter.