Background

- A. The Grantor is registered as proprietor of the servient tenement.
- B. The Grantee Karaka Brookview Limited is registered as proprietor of the dominant tenements in Identifiers 770614 and 770617.
- C. The Grantee Karaka Centre Limited is registered as proprietor of the dominant tenements 282307 and 282308.
- D. The Grantees Francis Miles Reynolds and Juliet Linnell Reynolds are registered as proprietors of the dominant tenement 421475.
- E. The Grantees Richard Norman Reynolds and Kirsten Suzanne Reynolds (jointly as to ½ share) and Richard Norman Reynolds and Kirsten Suzanne Reynolds (jointly as to ½ share) are registered as proprietors of the dominant tenement in Identifiers 770615 and 770616.
- F. For valuable consideration, the Grantor has agreed to covenant for itself and its successors in title as the registered proprietor for the time being and from time to time of the servient tenement as provided in this Easement Instrument.

Covenants

- 1. The Grantor covenants for itself and its successors in title as the registered proprietor for the time being and from time to time of the servient tenement for the benefit of each of the Grantees as registered proprietor of the respective dominant tenements as set out in Backgrounds B, C, D. and E. above that the Grantor will not object to, make a submission objecting to, frustrate, hinder or prevent, or procure any one to object to, make a submission objecting to, frustrate, hinder or prevent, any application for a resource consent, building consent or a plan change by the Grantees or any of the Grantees or any third party in relation to any of the dominant tenements or any land acquired or to be acquired by the Grantees whether in their own names or jointly or in shares with each other or with any third party.
- 2. The Grantor acknowledges and agrees that damages are not an adequate remedy in the event of a breach by the Grantor of the covenants contained in this Easement Instrument, and without limiting any other rights at law or in equity available to the Grantees or any of them, a breach of any of the covenants in this Easement Instrument shall entitle the Grantees or any of them and the Grantees' respective successors in title to immediate injunctive relief.
- 3. Notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary,
 - a. the covenants contained in this Easement instrument have been made by the parties for themselves and their respective successors in title and any persons deriving title under them and shall have effect as if those successors and other persons were expressed. Accordingly, the rights accruing to the Grantees under this Easement Instrument shall be enforceable at the suit of the Grantees or any of them for so long as such Grantee shall remain a registered proprietor of any of the dominant tenements, and upon transfer of the dominant tenements to any third party, the rights of the Grantees shall be enforceable by any of their respective successors in title;

- b. the covenants contained in this Easement Instrument shall be forever binding upon the Grantor and its successors in title as registered proprietor of the servient tenement, and shall enure forever for the benefit of the Grantees and their respective successors in title PROVIDED HOWEVER THAT the Grantee may at any time execute a partial release of the servient tenement from its covenants hereunder to any one or more or any part of any of the dominant tenements in accordance with clause 6 below;
 - c. the parties and their successors and persons deriving title under them shall be deemed to include the owners, tenants, occupiers and users for the time being of the relevant tenement; and
 - d. sections 23(2), 275 to 279, and 301 to 306 of the Property Law Act 2007 shall apply.
4. The Grantor shall have liability under this Easement Instrument only in respect of breaches that occur while the Grantor is registered proprietor of the servient tenement. Notwithstanding that the Grantor may have granted a lease or licence or other right to occupy the servient tenement to any other party, the Grantor shall be liable to the Grantees or any of them for and in respect of any breaches that shall be occasioned by any such lessee, licensee or occupier of the servient tenement. Should any part of the servient tenement be subdivided, then the liability of the registered proprietor of any subdivided lot shall be limited only to any breaches occurring on that subdivided lot only and not for any breach occurring on any other part of the servient tenement.
5. This Easement Instrument is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of New Zealand, and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the New Zealand Courts.
6. In respect of any dominant tenement or any part thereof, the Grantee as the registered proprietor thereof may, at any time during the term of this Easement Instrument, determine (in that Grantee's sole and absolute discretion) that that Grantee no longer requires the benefit of this Easement Instrument to be appurtenant to that dominant tenement or any part thereof. That Grantee may then execute a partial surrender of its rights under this Easement Instrument in the form annexed as Appendix B and that Grantee may request the Registrar-General of Land to note such partial surrender against this Easement Instrument and/or the affected unique identifiers (as the case may be). The Registrar-General of Land shall be entitled to rely upon the request of that Grantee and make such notation without further inquiry.
