Hazardous Activities and Industries List (HAIL)

Tasman District Council monitors contaminated sites. This property has a record of the following contamination risks. If the site or any adjacent site has been used for industrial, horticultural or agricultural purposes, we suggest you make further enquiries.

LIM Statement

This site has been identified as being subject to the Resource Management (National Environmental Standard for Assessing and Managing Contaminants in Soil to Protect Human Health) Regulations 2011. This property has been in orchard and olive use and had buildings constructed prior to the 1960s with potential for soil to be contaminated. Any future change of use, substantial earthworks or subdivision might require a site investigation report pursuant to the regulations. Please note this report may result in the need for resource consent under these regulations.

Potential Lead Paint Contamination of Dwellings, Buildings & Land

Any specific information in relation to contamination will be contained in the HAIL part of the Property summary, otherwise the Council has no specific information in relation to this property.

Lead is a highly toxic substance that was a key ingredient in household paint. Any building or dwelling built before or during the 1960's is likely to have used lead-based paint at some time. Soil surrounding these buildings has potential to be contaminated by heavy metals contained in the paint. Landowners are responsible for ensuring the safe management of lead paint removal for protecting human health and the environment.

Wetlands

One or more natural wetlands have been determined to exist on this property. Tasman Resource Management Plan rules 17.5.5, 17.6.5, 17.7.5, 17.8.5, 28.2.2, and 31.1.6 apply, and are available on the Council website. For further information on these wetlands please contact the Council Ecologist.

Pest Inspection History

The Tasman-Nelson region has a Regional Pest Management Strategy for the control of declared pest plants, animals and organisms. The responsibility for the control of pests lies with the land occupier or owner. If you intend purchasing a property within Tasman District, Council recommends you seek advice from the vendor about Pest Management Notices that may have been served. This property has a record of the following pest inspections. For further information, please contact Council's Biosecurity team.

X Location	Y Location	Pest	Date	Status at time of inspection
