Sunroom, Deck and Everyday Ease

Set in Feilding, this single-level three-bedroom brick home keeps everyday living simple, sunny and well connected. With a 128m² floor plan on a 325m² section, one bathroom, a separate W.C., internal-access garage and two carports, it is a comfortable fit for buyers wanting a home that feels easy to run without giving up useful room.

The living/dining area gives the home its main gathering point, with open-plan living creating an easy flow for meals, quiet evenings and people dropping in. A heat pump keeps this space comfortable through the seasons, while the kitchen sits neatly alongside with good connection back to daily life. The conservatory adds a lovely extra layer, giving you a light-filled spot for morning coffee, reading or an extra living space.

All three bedrooms sit off the hallway, keeping the sleeping areas nicely tucked away from the shared spaces. The main bedroom is generous in feel, while the other two bedrooms give flexibility for children, guests, hobbies or working from home. The bathroom includes the versatility of both a bath and a shower.

Willhart Court is an easy stroll to Feilding's town centre, with local cafés, supermarkets, schools, Kowhai and Manfeild Parks all nearby.
