Dear Sir/Madam

New dwelling/BLD/2002/23529/1

In reference to previous correspondence advising that Council is required to make a decision as to whether the Code Compliance Certificate (CCC) can be issued, where a Form 6 application for CCC has not been received.

As no response has been received to our previous letter, the above building consent has had its status changed to "Refused CCC".

Refused CCC status does not restrict you from completing the work and applying for a CCC at a later date, however please be aware that in progressing the work you will need to ensure that any further inspections listed under the building consent inspection endorsements are notified to Council for it to be in a position to issue the CCC at completion. The exception is a lapsed consent, where the owner will need to apply for new building consent.

Thanking you for your cooperation.

Yours faithfully

Lindsay Pearce
