Lead is a highly toxic substance that was a key ingredient in household paint. Any building or dwelling built before or during the 1960's is likely to have used lead-based paint at some time. Soil surrounding these buildings has potential to be contaminated by heavy metals contained in the paint. Landowners are responsible for ensuring the safe management of lead paint removal for protecting human health and the environment.

However please note that the Resource Management (National Environmental Standards for Freshwater) Regulations 2020 creates conditions relating to works carried out around natural inland wetlands regardless of whether they have been mapped by Council or not.
