

WAYLAND

☆

A NEW SUBURBAN RESIDENTIAL AREA IN GORE

Now being developed by Mersey Buildings (Gore) Limited to the latest engineering standards is an area of 28 acres of level ground in the Southwestern part of the Borough of Gore.

Section areas are from 20 poles to 30 poles but may in some cases be varied to suit purchasers' requirements.

Each section is fully serviced with drainage, water, telephone and electric power (underground)) provided to street frontage.

The new Intermediate School, the West Gore Primary School, St. Peters College and the Gore High School are in close proximity.

Route of Bus Service: Broughton Street, Charlton Road and Robertson Street.

A suitable tree or shrub will be supplied without charge to each purchaser.

Price range is from $1500.

FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS APPLY—

MERSEY BUILDINGS (GORE) LIMITED

P.O. BOX 18, GORE

or Any Land Agent in Gore

WAYLAND

The name given to the Subdivision, which it is considered is suitable for adoption as the name of the suburban area, is derived from the name of the legendary skilled artificer who forged the swords and made ornamental articles for the mythical Norse chieftains. The street names are derived from his craft or other persons associated with the legends.

NEWMAN PARK

